BLACK-TANNER.

Illinois Couple Marry Here-Not an Elopement.

Rev. Arthur Roberts was called upon Tuesday afternoon to solem-nize-the rites of matrimony between Mr. 'J. G. Black, of Nashvile, Ill., and Mrs. Fannie B. Tanner, of luka, in the saméstate. The couple arrived on the train and the ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of the officiating minister.

It seems that they did not elope, as both parties were of age, but they did not care to have a "home wedding" and just decided to take a little trip to Kentucky to have the

AWFUL HORROR.

Worse Disaster Than The Maine Explosion.

Lives Lost-Bodies Recovered.

Frankfort, May 2.—Judge Cantrill today made an order in the Frankfin circuit court changing all the Goebe murder cases except that a gainst W. H. Callon, to Georgetown for trial. He said, he would like for the cases to be tried at the June term of court. Lut if the parties could not be ready at the parties could hold a special term of court in July. He intimated that the would insist on a trial at that time if the parties were not ready in June.

The autorneys will confer at one and come to an understanding. The general belief is that both sides can be ready for the June term of the trials will take place then. The motion for bail for the defendants was made in the circuit court this morning on the ground the indictments were faulty, in that they did not state that any particular person had killed senator Goebel. Judge Cantrill overruled the motion on this ground, and said that he could not grant bail in any of the cases without hearing the evidence. The case against W. R. Culton was then called and the evidence are to the control of the co The grand jury has adjourned and The ceremony was pronounced by no indictment has been placed on Eld. H. D. Bail Refused.

For three hours yesterday afternoon William H. Culton, testifying in his own behalf in support of a motion for bail, gave the most sensational testimony yet given in the Goebel assassination conspiracy. Many of the statements were dragged from him after the most persistent cross-examination by Col. T. C. Campbell. Culton's testimony convicts Youtsey of being an active leader in the conspiracy; designates James Howard as the man who fred the fatal shot; implicates W. S. Taylor as an accessory both before and after the fact, and also convicts Finley, Caleb Powers and himself. Culton had not finished his testimony when Caleb Powers and himself. Culton had not finished his testimony when court adjourned for the day. His testimony showed that armed men were brought to Frankfort, and that their expenses were paid by Taylor and others; that an order Taylor and others: that an order was carried by him from Taylor to the Adjutant General to have the militia ready to get out quickly and stand off the police, and also confirms every one of the sensational statements made by Wharton Golden when he took the witness stand the policy of the policy stand off the police, and also confirms every one of the sensational the commodious Mercer Park, one square from Main street, where the boths will also be located. There is, however, no one street upon which all attractions congregate but they tempt the tired wanderer at every corner. Many arc clustered on the edges of the Camp de Mars, and of these, two of the most attractive are the Tour du Monde and the Swiss Village.

Tour du Monde and the Swiss VIllage.

The former was designed by Louis Dumoulin, whose pictures of the Orient are famous. Its exterior is a strange jumble of the architecture of all the East—Hindoo, Chinese, Siamese—making, however, a very effective mass. Its interior is in the form of an immense panoman, with the added attractions of living futures in native dances, etc.—From "Some Pictureague Sides of the Exposition," by Ernest C.
